

The background of the image is a rustic wooden surface made of horizontal planks. Scattered across the wood are various autumn leaves in shades of yellow, orange, red, and green. Several chestnuts are also visible, some in their spiky husks and others as smooth, dark brown nuts.

Signs of Autumn

Leaves fall from the trees.

Blackberries can be found growing on bushes by the roadside.

Chestnuts with their spiky coats fall to the ground.

Inside the spiky coats are shiny brown chestnuts.

Children play games
of conkers.

Farmers collect apples
from the apple trees.

Acorns fall to the ground
from the oak trees.

Helicopter seeds fall
from the sycamore tree.

Pumpkins can be seen growing in the fields.

Clocks go back one hour.

Children celebrate the festival of Hallowe'en.

Autumn colours appear in nature
– red, yellow, brown orange.

Weather turns cooler with more wind and rain.

Some birds fly off to warmer countries.

Animals like the hedgehog
get ready to hibernate.

Days get shorter and nights get longer.

Trees become bare after losing their leaves.

Toadstools can be seen growing in the forest.

Pine cones fall to the ground.

Squirrels gather nuts
to get ready for winter.

Grass growth slows down and the grass can be covered in autumn leaves.

People wear warmer clothes –
coats, hats, scarves, gloves.

Farmers are busy
collecting the harvest.
